

Research Translation

Dan Chang,
Core Leader

Current Emphasis

- Getting "technologies" to the user- community
 - Partner with the Graduate School of Management (GSM), to train scientists in business development, team GSM and trainees to consider commercialization opportunities
 - Actively seeking opportunities to apply existing technologies
 - Improving commercialization potential
 - "Spinning off" into a related area, e.g., MTBE/TBA
 - Work with user community on science of an "emerging contaminant" issue, e.g, biosolids
 - International collaborations - graduate student exchanges
 - Conventional means - journal pubs, research briefs, web sites, and contact with public agencies and NGOs through the UC Toxic Substances Research & Teaching Program