Register Now for the 2011 Good Jobs, Green Jobs Conference

Join us February 8-10, 2011, for the fourth Good Jobs, Green Jobs National Conference at the Marriott Wardman Park Hotel in Washington, D.C. The 2011 Conference is the leading forum for sharing ideas and strategies for building a green economy that creates good jobs, reduces global warming and other environmental problems, and secures America's economic and environmental future.

The 2011 Conference will focus on putting into practice the ideas and strategies for a new green economy—and creating good green jobs—around the country while demonstrating the breadth of the coalition working to build a green economy and to create the good jobs that come along with it.
