Program Operations

- Cooperative Agreements
- Terms and Conditions
- Communications
- Reporting (Progress Reports)
- Updates on Program Component Accomplishments
- Expectations for the next 5 years

- Why Cooperative Agreements?
 - national coordination, and to avoid duplication of efforts and overlap in program development and delivery;
 - facilitate the ongoing exchange of relevant scientific and technical information;
 - ensure regulatory compliance with applicable federal worker health and safety requirements and national consistency in the delivery of training curricula; and
 - the need to have a timely and appropriate response to events of national significance.

Publications –ERA Commons and NIH Public Access Policy

- You must include a specific acknowledgment of NIH grant support, such as: “Training reported in this [publication/press release] was supported by [name of the Institute(s), Center, or other NIH offices] of the National Institutes of Health under award number [specific NIH grant number(s) in this format: U45..ES..7654].”
- NIH funding acknowledgement page at <http://grants.nih.gov/grants/acknow.htm> describes when, where, and how to cite your NIH grant in your manuscripts, presentations, and in press releases describing NIH-supported research.
- Also on this page -Communicating and Acknowledging Federal Funding” is a handy reference.

Financial Conflict of Interest

- Reporting:
- NIH Guide Notice NOT-OD-14-081 at <http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-081.html> (04/18/2014) - NIH is making improvements to the FCOI module for submission of financial conflict of interest (FCOI) reports to NIH beginning on April 25, 2014.
- NIH requires grantees to use the FCOI module via eRA Commons, to submit FCOI reports for NIH grants and cooperative agreements subject to the Federal regulation at 42 CFR Part 50 Subpart F, Responsibility of Applicants for Promoting Objectivity in Research for which PHS Funding is Sought.
