Technology will not replace teachers,
but teachers who use technology will replace those that do not.

Author Unknown

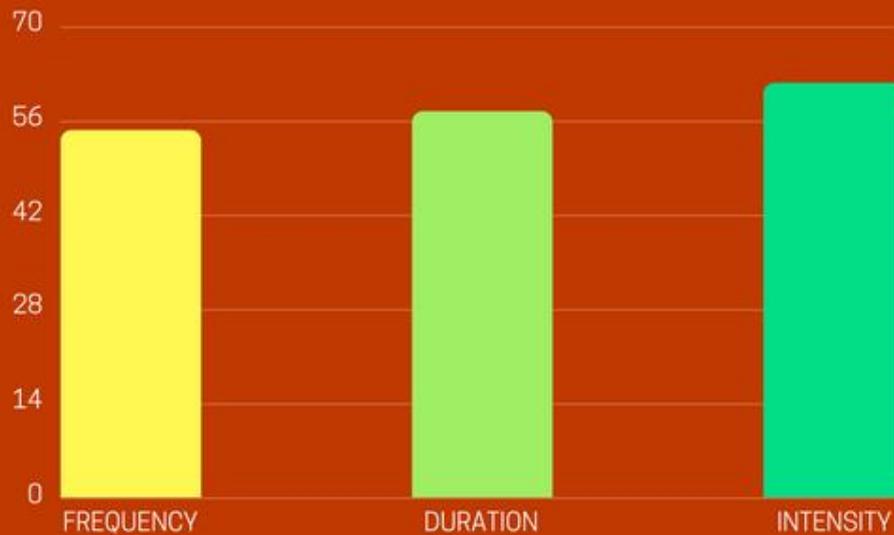

A person wearing a red shirt is seated at a desk, focused on writing on a set of architectural blueprints. Their hands are visible, with one hand holding a pen and the other resting on the papers. The desk is cluttered with various documents, including a notebook and a coffee cup. The background is slightly blurred, showing a typical office or workspace environment. The overall lighting is soft, and the image has a slightly desaturated, professional feel.

"IF YOU ONLY HAVE ENOUGH MONEY TO EITHER TEACH OR MOTIVATE, DON'T BOTHER WITH TEACHING.
