

SAVE THE DATE!

Superfund Research Program Annual Meeting

SAVE THE DATE! November 28-30, 2018

Sacramento, California

UC Davis SRP Center, in collaboration with Superfund Research Program Centers from UC Berkeley and UC San Diego, is excited to announce that we will be hosting the 2018 Annual Meeting of the NIEHS Superfund Research Program (SRP) on Wednesday, November 28 through Friday, November 30 in downtown Sacramento, California.

Planning has begun for the overall program and organizing committees are being formed. We hope that you will come to Sacramento this year to share, compare, and interact with other researchers working at many varied sites affected by hazardous substances.

Please save the dates on your calendar and spread the word!

We will email further information as it becomes available.

We look forward to seeing you in Sacramento, California.
