

Environmental Health Perspectives

Dr. Joel Kaufman, Editor-in-Chief

Based at NIEHS, Environmental Health Perspectives will celebrate its 50th anniversary in 2022. The journal has changed and grown over the years, becoming an important venue for scientific publishing in the Environmental Health Sciences. Dr. Joel Kaufman assumed the role of Editor-in-Chief in 2020. Dr. Kaufman will report on recent developments and upcoming planned changes at the journal.
