NC Women of Color Research Network 2024 Symposium: Leveraging Cultural Identity

Wednesday, July 31, 2024
9:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.
NIEHS Building 101, Rodbell Auditorium
111 TW Alexander Drive, Research Triangle Park, N.C.

Agenda:
Registration • Welcome • Panel Discussion • Break and Transition
Roundtable Networking • Lunch • Poster Session • Wrap-Up • Adjourn

The symposium will offer speakers, panels, and networking opportunities focused on promoting career advancement by broadening participation of women researchers and scientists of color, establishing collaborations and partnerships, multilevel mentoring, outreach, and professional networking.

We welcome all researchers — from undergrads to senior faculty, community members, businesses, and agencies. Please register at the link below for additional details.

This event is co-hosted by the National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences and North Carolina State University.

The NC Women of Color Research Network (NC WoCRN) is a statewide network of researchers representing academia, government, and industry. The Network is a product of the National Institutes of Health Working Group on Women in Biomedical Careers and its Women of Color Research Network.

Registration is free, but required. Please register here.
