

Volunteer Today! Empower Health, Change Lives, and Strengthen Community!

Join us for a volunteer opportunity at the 2026 Women's Health Awareness Conference, a transformative day dedicated to educating, uplifting, and supporting women within our community.

As a volunteer, you'll be a driving force behind this event's success. Help deliver impactful, accessible, and life-changing health resources to communities across North Carolina. Your involvement strengthens the well-being of our neighbors and helps build a healthier future for all.

Lead Sponsor: National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences, Clinical Research Branch, Office of Human Research and Community Engagement

Co-Sponsors: Durham Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc. and North Carolina Central University Department of Public Health Education
